TARIC ISLAMIC CENTRE

Description:

The primary responsibility of the Camp Counsellor is to supervise and overlook the group of campers they are assigned to. Two counsellors will be assigned to each age group and will together oversee approximately 20 campers. Counsellors will be responsible for the campers that are part of their group and will lead the children in each activity/class scheduled throughout the day. Counsellors will be responsible for the whereabouts and extra needs of any campers in their group and assist campers in each activity.

Counsellors will be responsible for problem-solving and mediation in any conflict between campers. They will also be responsible for making daily reports to Camp Managers regarding any updates or issues. Counsellors must also be able to communicate with parents and provide them with any necessary information regarding the camp. The counsellor would also be expected to lead campers in activities, games, and sports each day. Counsellors would be supported in this regard, in terms of curriculum planning and resources.

Ideal Candidate:

The ideal candidate is someone who:

- Has a background in working with children and in leadership roles.
- Serves as a role model for younger campers.
- Demonstrates responsibility and reliability.
- Solves problems and assess situations in order to make decisions.
- Effectively communicates with campers and co-workers.
- Carries a positive attitude and is enthusiastic.
- Can adapt to unforeseen situations.
- Coordinate and plan activities for campers.
- Explain tasks and engage in daily events along with the campers.
- Maintains authority over campers and is willing to take disciplinary action.
- Be fluent in reading Arabic.
